Types of Membership

Regular (Individual) — Must be at least eighteen years of age and enjoy all club privileges including the right to vote and hold office.

Couple (Two Adults in the same household) --- Two adult members residing in the same household, each eligible to vote and hold office.

Associate— Must be at least eighteen years of age and entitled to all club privileges except voting, holding an officer or board position or sponsoring regular members (offered to individuals who live outside of the club's area; also offered to individuals who live in the club's area but are not active). Associate members do not count in the determination of a quorum.

Junior — Open to children under 18 years of age and whose membership may not vote, hold an office or a board position, or sponsor a regular member and does not count in the determination of a quorum. Junior members may automatically convert to regular membership at age 18 upon the completion and submission to the secretary of a fully executed, signed regular membership application.
